BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

Requests that his library may be favoured with the presentation of the Mysore Census Report.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

The Census super^r has reported that he has only 95 more sets of the report & has sent in a list of applicants for copies. The Dewan's views appear to be that these few

Serial

remaining Vols. should be conserved for our own future requirements. Unless more copies are ordered to be printed it may not be possible to present this institution with copies of the Census reports.

The request for copies of the Admin. Reports & of the Assembly Procs have to be attended to in Branch D. but

29/1/12 ^{Blm} At the time of copies left for distribution was 95, free libraries and other public bodies in the state have the right claim for them. After their requirements are satisfied he may distribute copies if available outside the state. We must know more about the library which is now the applicant before we can accede to the request. but it may perhaps be taken that after Mysore bodies have been satisfied further distribution to places where Kanara is the spoken language may not come in of preference.
